

Students' Views

- “If you enjoy being analytical and creative, do English Language.”
- “English is enjoyable and rewarding: but be prepared to put the work in!”
- “I can express my thoughts and views out loud, instead of loads of text book style learning.”
- “Learning about the ways we use language every day is really interesting and useful.”
- “You have to read a lot and be really detailed, but that makes texts easier to understand.”
- “Be eager, and enjoy it!”

AS English Language

Keith Carman
Head of English

English Language

A prestigious subject at advanced level and beyond...

- Barrister/solicitor
- Journalist
- Advertising
- Linguist/translator
- Teacher/lecturer
- Research
- Publishing
- Public Relations
- Marketing
- Information Science

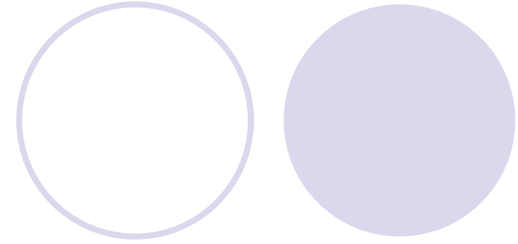

Which course should I choose?

- If you most enjoy media, original writing
 - LANGUAGE
- If you most enjoy C20th drama, novels
 - LITERATURE
- If you enjoy all of these things
 - DO ENGLISH LITERATURE AND ENGLISH LANGUAGE!

AS Unit 1: Categorising Texts

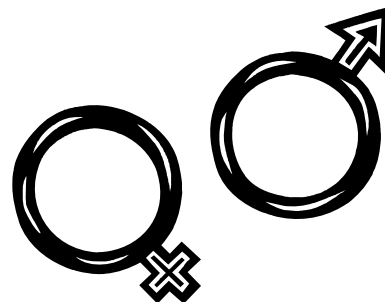

60% open book examination

Language and...

POWER

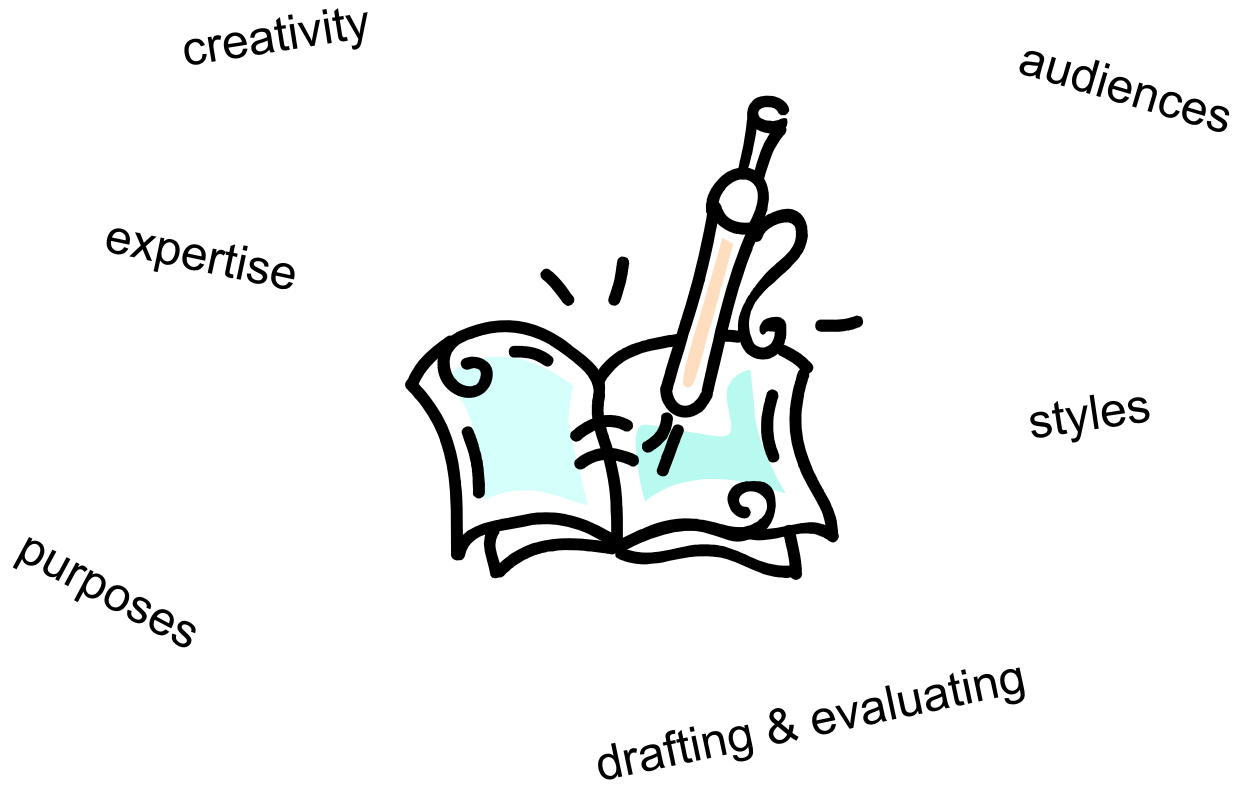

GENDER

TECHNOLOGY

AS Unit 2: Creating Texts

40% coursework

Entry Requirements

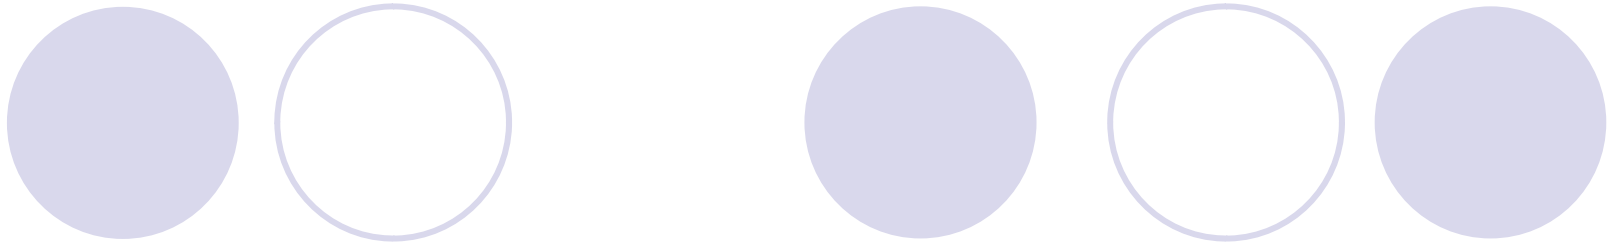

- For both courses
 - A*-B GCSE English, plus
 - A*-C GCSE English Literature, plus
 - 3+ other GCSEs at A*-C, plus
 - Moodle tasks on grammar categories

Additional Requirements

- Support from home
- Trips
 - Theatre
 - Conferences
- Texts
 - Students supply their own texts

Ask the students!

Further Information

- Sixth Form booklet
- www.aqa.org.uk
- Your own English teacher
- Keith Carman

○ ocarmank@ripley.lancs.sch.uk

○ 01524 64496

AS English Language

Keith Carman
Head of English